Comic Relief Friday 19th March 2021

This year we are keeping things simple for Comic Relief

We are having a non-uniform day where we are wearing one item of clothing that is red

So have a rummage at home and see what you can find!

No dressing up in costumes!

No red noses to school!

This year we are making our donations contact free so please use our ParentMail link to help us support this charity.